

Corrosion Control Coatings

The Naval Research Laboratory's Center for Corrosion Science and Engineering in Key West, Florida develops corrosion control, Camouflage and special coatings for shipboard use. Some of these applications include:

- Well deck overhead coatings
- Edge retentive ballast tank coatings
- Surface tolerant coatings
- Easy release coatings
- Environmentally compliant degreasers
- Sacrificial primers
- Topside camouflage coatings
 - Low solar absorbance systems
 - Antistain systems

Natural Weathering

180° S by 45°N Atmospheric

Seawater Fouling Control

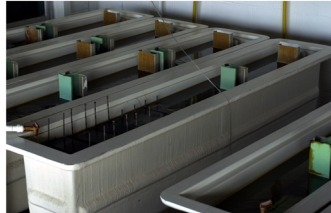

Biofouling Exposure

Flow Channel

Cyclical & Seawater Immersion

Biscayne Bay FL

Pearl Harbor HI

Accelerated Testing

Salt Fog

Humidity & QUV

Analytical Laboratory

Chemical

Physical

For more information, please contact:

Keith Lucas
Naval Research Laboratory
4555 Overlook Ave., SW
Code 6130
Washington, DC 20375
202-767-0833
klucas@ccs.nrl.navy.mil

